CROWS' NEST PASS SUNDAY SCHOOL MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Very keen interest is being manifested in the forthcoming musical festival to be staged in Blairmore on Saturday, May 16th, by the adult Sunday Schools of the district from Fincher Creek to Coleman.

Up to the present about 105 entries have been made. These include 55 for the piano competition, 27 for violin and some sixteen entries for the vocal competition.

Both the opera house and Union church will be in use during the day. The piano competition will open at the opera house at 9.30 a.m., while at the same place at 7.30 p.m. five amateur orchestras will compete, and solo and duet singing will take place. At 2 p.m. the vocal competition opens at the Union church.

Here is a whole day of music and a real treat in store for the music-loving public of the district. To cover expenses connected therewith, a small admission fee of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children will be made.

Mr. Clifford Higgin, of Mount Royal College, Calgary, and their leader of Knox Presbyterian church, will be adjudicator of instrumental music, while Mr. Elgin Higgin, also of Calgary, will be the judge in the vocal competition.

LADIES' AID OF UNION CHURCH ELECT OFFICERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Union church was held in the church yesterday afternoon. At this meeting the officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Honorary President—Mrs. (Rev.) W. T. Young.
President—Mrs. W. Howe (re-elected).
Vice President—Mr. M. McKay.
Secretary—Mrs. R. Dicken.
Treasurer—Mrs. D. A. Howe (re-elected).

Flower Committee—Mrs. J. Angus McDonald, Mrs. A. Hamilton (re-elected).
Visiting Committee—Mrs. D. A. Howe, Mrs. Baird.

Following June the 10th, this organization will be known as the "Ladies' Aid of the United Church of Blairmore."

ELKS' GRAND EXALTED RULER TO VISIT BLAIRMORE MAY 21st

Local Elks are looking forward with pleasure to the proposed visit here on Thursday, May 21st, of Colonel R. Burrill, of Winnipeg, grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

The Grand Exalted Ruler has included Blairmore in his Western Canada itinerary, reaching here from Lethbridge on the morning of the 21st. Special preparations are being made for his entertainment here. He has just recently completed a tour of Eastern Canada, through which he was given a rousing reception at all points.

In all likelihood Bros. Sam S. Savage and Dr. Gibson and others, of Calgary, will be here on the occasion of the supreme head's visit.

Referring to his visit to Eastern Canada, a correspondent to The Dominion Elk remarks: "Grand Exalted Ruler Burrill received a splendid reception in Eastern Canada, but just wait until he gets into the hands of the Elks of Western Canada. Go the limit, boys; he's worthy of the best you have to offer. He particularly desires good meetings. See that there are few absences or the night of his official visit."

A man in Mexico who was arrested for attempted murder, informed the court that he had shot at the wrong person. Subsequently he was released and will now be able to put the matter right.

BOARD OF TRADE HOLDS GENERAL MEETING

A general meeting of the Blairmore Board of Trade was held at the offices of the Crows' Nest Pass Motors on Tuesday evening, President L. L. Morgan presiding.

The minutes of previous meeting were adopted as read and a communication from H. D. MacMillan, of Cowley, was given favorable consideration.

The following committees were appointed for the season:

Camp Committee—W. A. Henderson, A. E. Ferguson and S. Knapman.
Publication Committee—W. J. Bartlett, L. Duff, W. W. Scott and D. R. McKay.

Subscription and Assessment Committee—W. A. Henderson and W. Bird, secretary.

Entertainment Committee—Robert Gray, W. A. Beebe, A. McLeod and R. Hays.

Treasurer Henderson reported that approximately $400 would be required for this year's operations.

The assessment committee was empowered to draw up assessment and place advertising in the tourist camp free to those who pay their assessment, according to the amount that they have been assessed.

The Camp Committee was allotted $50 for this year.

One of the most important pieces of business transacted at the meeting was brought about through the following resolution, moved and seconded by Messrs. A. E. Ferguson and W. A. Beebe, to effect that this Board offer prizes for improvements to personal property in the town, and also for the best vegetable garden, and that a committee be appointed to carry out the plan as outlined by the mover of the motion. Also that judges be appointed. The motion carried and the following committee was appointed: A. E. Ferguson, W. J. Bartlett and W. A. Beebe. This committee was empowered to appoint the judges, draw up rules and to do the necessary advertising, etc., and that they be allowed a liberal sum to be given in cash for prizes. In addition to what the Board may allot for prizes, it is expected that private parties will be sufficiently interested in this most worthy movement to donate funds towards it.

The committee have already taken steps towards the carrying out of their duties. Some of the conditions attached to the competition will be that the improvements to property must be those effected within the year 1926 and that vegetable gardens must be the direct work of the owner or his family. Entries must be made at the office of The Blairmore Enterprise not later than Monday, June the 1st. Competent judges will be secured.

The publicity committee was empowered to have two signs painted at once, one each to be placed on the east and west boundary bridges of the town, at a cost not to exceed $20. Mr. L. P. Robert was added to the executive.

HOCKEY CLUB MEETING

A general meeting of the Blairmore Hockey Club will be held at the Greenhill Hotel on tomorrow (Friday) evening, commencing at eight o'clock.

The affairs for the past season will be wound up and prospects for the next season will be considered. A good attendance is urgently requested.

L.O.D.E. MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the L.O.D.E. will be held in the Greenhill hotel parlor on Monday, May 11th, at 7.30 p.m. sharp. All members are requested to be present.

ADVANTAGES GREATER IN WESTERN CANADA

Comparative figures show that 38 per cent of the farms occupied in the United States are farmed by tenants, and only 8 per cent rented in Canada.

The Canadian advantage is much more striking when the three prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—the largest grain growing area in the world—where yet there are millions of acres waiting settlement, are compared with those sections of the United States of similar general conditions and production. The average price of occupied farm lands in Manitoba, including both improved and unimproved, together with dwelling houses and buildings, is $28 and in Saskatchewan and Alberta $24. Against these prices are the following comparative figures per acre in various states, according to the last United States Census of Agriculture:

Ohio $113.18, Indiana $125.98, Illinois $187.59, Michigan $75.48, Wisconsin $98.78, Minnesota $109.23 Iowa $227.09, Missouri $88.08, North Dakota $41.10, South Dakota $71.40, Nebraska $87.91, Kansas $62.30, Montana $22.15, Idaho $69.43, Colorado $35.40, Utah $48.26, Nevada $28.11.

According to findings of the United States tariff commission in 1923, the Canadian farmer can produce a bushel of wheat for 46 cents less than the American farmer, principally because Canadian wheat lands are cheaper, the average yield per acre higher, and cost of transportation to markets lower.

NEW ARRANGEMENT RE ARBOR DAY

Arbor Day will be celebrated this year on Monday, May 11th, which date has been set by the provincial government. It has been the custom for schools throughout the province to observe this as a general holiday and the schools have been closed. Hon. Perrin Baker, minister of education, holds the view that this defeats the objects for which Arbor Day was set aside, namely the planting of trees around the school grounds and generally beautifying the grounds. While Arbor Day may still be observed as a general holiday among the schools, Mr. Baker has urged that the schools carry on and observe the day for what it was originally intended. He has stipulated that those schools which do this will receive the usual grant for a school day. When the schools close up for this day, as on other holidays, they do not receive the grant.

The Hillcrest Tennis Club has re-organized for the 1925 season, with Mrs. W. Rose, as president, and Mr. A. N. Warriner, as vice-president.

G. H. Thompson and family left here by motor on Friday last for Calgary, where they will reside in future. Their many friends in Blairmore regretted sincerely to see them leave. Mr. Thompson has held down the position of electrical superintendent with the West Canadian Collieries for two or three years.

Rev. J. M. C. Wilson, chairman of the Springhill citizens relief committee, resigned last week, because part of the funds disbursed by the committee were from the Red Internationale of Russia and the committee had not been advised that any of their funds came from that source, but were left to assume that the contribution was a part of the United Mine Workers of America International fund.

A BOY'S COMPACT

Two boys ran away from home recently. They were picked up by the police in another town and sent back to their respective homes. When found these boys carried an agreement which they had made before starting out. It pledged them as follows: (1) Once we leave we stay together; (2) Not to fight; (3) Not to smoke or steal; (4) If dispute arise on any matter toss up to settle it; (5) Fifty-fifty on everything; (6) To keep going south and not back; (7) Play the game fair.

Not a bad agreement for two young boys to make. It was no doubt best that they should have been returned to their homes. Education and a little more wise discipline should help them to keep their compact in future years. If they retain their ideals of comradeship, fair play, honesty and stick-to-it-iveness they should go far on their journey toward success.—Ex.

Two hundred boys, students of Gladstone high school, Michigan, were expelled recently for coming to school minus neckties and with their collars unbuttoned. The boys informed the teachers that they would obey the dress regulations only when the girl students were compelled to stop wearing their stockings rolled.

The Rennie Free Press states: "G. F. Johnson, of the C.N.P. Coal Company's staff, will leave for Vancouver, where he will take charge of A. B. Trites' mining office. Mr. Johnson, who is also city auditor here, is not yet sure whether he will be able to take care of the city business or not." Mr. Johnson is also auditor for the Town of Blairmore and Blairmore School District.

A very pleasant evening was spent in the Lodge Hall on Friday, when the members of Greenhill Temple, Pythian Sisters, celebrated their second birthday. Members of the K. P. Lodge had been invited and attended in large numbers. There were also present a large number of brothers and sisters from Coleman. Twelve hands of whist were played, the winners being: Ladies' first, Miss W. Dicken; ladies' consolation, Mrs. W. Archer. Gents' first, John Davis; consolation, B. Sensier (a draw with Jack Rushton). Tables were next spread and about one hundred sat down to supper. Following the supper, dancing was entered into. A special feature of the dance program was the novelty two-step, when holders of tickets danced with those holding corresponding numbers. A draw for prizes in this connection was made by little Miss Norma Joyce. The first draw, for ladies' prize, happened to be her own number. The draw for gentlemen's prize went to James Stewart.

MAKING THE WORLD SAFE FOR BOLSHIEVISM

Here are two interesting items in the news:

"1. BERKELEY, Calif., April 29.—Investigations made by the University of California show that less than one-third of women graduates in this country ever marry, while only one-fourth ever become mothers.

"2. CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—Peter and Anna Johanson brought before the court after a strenuous family fight, were found to be of such feeble mind that both will be taken care of in a state institution. Their 12 children will become public charges." How long can the white race support its civilization when the people of finest mental calibre are rejecting parenthood and people of lowest mental calibre are breeding like rabbits?

With the mentally superior dying off and the mentally inferior increasing by leaps and bounds, Bolshevism, or organized inferiority, is easily explained.

These college girls who refuse matrimony and reject parenthood are only making the world safe for Communism.—Ex.

The bachelor leads a lonesome life. Deprived of joys of home and wife. He never knows, the poor old bum. Where the next kiss is coming from.

A social and dance will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Bellevue, under the auspices of the G.W.V.A., tomorrow night.

Movie-Making in Canadian Rockies

1—Directing an Alaskan drama in Alberta. 2—A scene from "The Alaskan" featuring Thomas Meighan and screened near Banff. 3—Thomas Meighan.

While it may be true that in the making of moving pictures Canada lags a trifle behind the United States, there is at least one particular in which American producers are becoming more and more dependant upon the Dominion for the proper production of their super-films. And that particular is—scenery.

They may have their stars, their mechanical contrivances, their experience and their wealth, but during the past few years they have learned that for sheer beauty of scenery and splendor of "settings," the Canadian Pacific Rocky Mountains are unsurpassable. That this discovery was made at all is due mainly to one, Mr. Ernest Shipman. Two or three years ago it occurred to Mr. Shipman (who has produced some notable pictures in his time) that there were certain spots in the Rocky Mountains, such as Banff, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake and their environs, which were, on account of their singular beauty, admirably adapted to the production of Northern dramas. So he marshalled his forces, placed his beloved magnifying glass securely under his arm and embarked, via the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the Rocky Mountains.

Here, with Henry MacLure directing, he proceeded to film "The Foreigner" near the shores of Lake Louise, with the magnificent mountains for a background, and, for a stage, one of the most exquisite spots on earth. The result was that, not only did he produce a splendid picture but that the Rockies sprang into instant popularity as a setting for northern dramas.

Since then scores of other "super-films" have been produced and many "villains" have paid the penalty of their foul deeds, many modest maidens have yielded to the wooing of strong, silent men; many dauntless heroes have faced the countless terrors of the Alaskan wilds, on the peaceful shores of Emerald Lake and the innocent highway between Banff and Windermere.

Among the most notable pictures screened entirely or in part, with the Rockies for a background, are "Back to God's Country," "The River's End," "The Alaskan," "Tommy Hand," "The Sky Pilot," "Glenarry Schoolboys," "The Man From Glenarry," "The Valley of Silent Men," "Frivolous Sam," "Strongheart" and "The Foreigner."

The chances are, then, that when you sit in your favorite movie house and gaze in silent admiration on the forbidding beauty of Alaska, the hills of Shasta or the still Sierras, you are, in reality, gazing at something far nearer home, not nearly so forbidding and infinitely more beautiful—the Rocky Mountains themselves.

So, America may have her Hollywood and her monopoly of the industry, but now that the value of the Rockies as a place where people may shoot the rapids, kill each other, make love, win fortunes and indulge in the other pleasant pastimes peculiar to moviedom, has been realized, it is to be hoped that Canada's position in the realm of the silent drama will shortly become more prominent than it has been in the past.

The Rockies are now easily accessible, there are Canadian Pacific hotels at some of the most attractive points, the light, atmosphere and other conditions are good, and there is no reason in the world why they should not eventually become a veritable "Hollywood of the Hills."

Here and There

Agents specializing in Irish business in Canada and the United States look for a big boom in steamship passenger traffic, according to reports received from steamship companies. The present outlook is said to be for the highest level of emigration to Canada since the war.

Str. William S. Glyn-Jones, Secretary of the British Pharmaceutical Society, is touring Canada under the auspices of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association with a view to explaining the workings of the Proprietary Articles Trade Association of Great Britain. He is opposed to "cut-rate" methods of selling drugs.

With 3,600,000 milch cows, 300,000 dairy farmers, 1,600 creameries and many thousand cheese factories, Canadians are the greatest butter eaters in the world with an annual average per capita consumption in 1923 of 27.43 pounds, according to D'Arcy Scott, secretary and treasurer of the National Dairy Council of Canada.

The shield taken from the gates of Quebec City when the Ancient Capital was taken in 1759 and which was donated to the City of Hastings by one of the conquerors, General Murray, will be returned to Quebec after an interval of 165 years. Lord Willington, First Viscount Raton, will be the special emissary who will bring the Shield back to Canada.

Salmon-fishing in the Eastern Townships of Quebec will be one of the attractions of that region when the Gaspé salmon eggs brought to the provincial government hatcheries at Lake Memphrémagog are developed. A number of trays packed in ice and holding some thousands of eggs recently passed through the Canadian Pacific Railway warehouse on the Montreal Windsor Station for St. Paul and Mont Tremblant.

Miss P. Carlisle, an English authoress of repute, who recently took up ranching near Calgary, has become so enthusiastic about the West that she is planning to bring out girls from the Old Country to follow her example. She found plenty of them willing to try out this plan. She herself harvested 7,000 bushels last year from the 250 acres under wheat on her 800 acre ranch.

By winning the New Brunswick Provincial Trophy Competition of the St. John Ambulance Association. In March last the Canadian Pacific Railway First Aid team from McAdam, N.B., now have a chance to compete this year for the Monticomp Trophy emblematic of the championship of Canada in First Aid. The team has a record of four championships to their credit since last June.

At a recent meeting of the Royal Society of Canada a gold medal for outstanding achievement in science was awarded to Charles Saunders for his discovery and development of "Mars" wheat. It is claimed that this variety has raised the Dominion to its present position as a wheat-growing country and has added millions of dollars to the pockets of farmers here and in the United States.

Exiled from Hungary of which he had been president, after the Communist revolution of 1919, Count Michael Karolyi toured the United States in March and April but was forbidden to address meetings or explain his political views in that country. He returned to London where he now lives, with Countess Karolyi, passing through Montreal and sailing on the Canadian Pacific S.S. "Montclair" from St. John. Interviewed in Montreal he expressed a great admiration for Canada and said he had once been on the point of settling either in Montreal or Toronto.

THE F. M. THOMPSON CO. invite the ladies of this district to their Main Store on Monday and Tuesday of next week, when they will be showing a very large range of Suits, Coats and Dresses from the R. H. WILLIAMS CO., Calgary, where fashion reigns supreme.

Gordon Campbell, discoverer of the Kevin-Sunburst oil field and the man who employed Senator Wheeler at $10,000 a year as his attorney, following Wheeler's election to the senate in 1922, has been found guilty of fraudulent oil promotion and using mails to defraud. He has been given a two-year jail sentence.

Nearly all of the "lucky" men, however, have come on their hands.

WHICH WILL YOU DO?

Will you buy new garments for Spring wear, or have several cleaned or dyed to suit the Season? You can have greater variety for less cost if you adopt this plan. You will be pleased with the results.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were Pincher Creek visitors on Tuesday.

Pincher Creek was well represented at the dance here on Monday night; a good number coming over.

The Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Tustian on Thursday night last.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leigh and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Grove motored to Fernie on Sunday, returning the same day.

The dance given by the I.O.O.F. on Monday was a huge success. A large crowd was present and a swell time reported.

The school, Fair board called a meeting on Saturday night to make further plans for the work of the fair. Garden needs are being distributed to the various schools.

The dance given at Todd Creek school on Friday night was well attended. Excellent music was furnished by local talent. Since the dance was so successful it was decided to let the proceeds go towards buying a piano for the school instead of an organ, as we reported in last issue.

A recent issue of the Truro Weekly News makes the following statement: "Of the $247,000 paid by Cape Breton miners into union funds of the United Mine Workers of America, 85 per cent remained in Nova Scotia to pay debts owed by miners and to assist locals in Nova Scotia."

International Council of Women

In connection with the Quinquennial Conference in Washington, May 4th to 14th, sixty-five delegates from Great Britain and Europe of the above organization sailed on the Canadian Pacific S.S. Montclair from Liverpool this month. Delegates from South Africa, New Zealand and Australia are also included. Among those from Great Britain are Lady Troutman Eve, Lady Silvester, Lady Nott Bower, Lady Adam Smith, Lady Eerton and Mrs. George Cadbury.

Blinded Soldiers; Mme. Odette Arnaud, the well known painter and Mme. Annette Fougere of the transmigration service of emigration. From left to right, sitting: Mme. Emile Fougere, Mme. Lucienne Bernheim, Mme. Pichon-Laudry; Mme. Avril de Sainte Croix, President of the French Association, Member of the Legion of Honour, and delegate to the League of Nations; Mme. Legrand, widow of the well-known French general; and Mme. Fard, Chevalier of the Legion of Honour and General Inspector of Public Instruction.

These ladies will be given official reception in Canada and will visit Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara Falls as guests of the Local Councils prior to attending the conference in Washington.

CAPTAIN BLOOD

RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyright, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini.

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a "Vignette" picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

"Nor will that serve you," Ogle warned him, still more fiercely. "The men are of my thinking, and they'll have their way."

"You come to give advice, then, do you?" Ogle asked, relenting nothing of his sternness.

"That's it, Captain; advice. That girl, there," He flung out a bare arm to point to her. "Bishop's girl; the Governor of Jamaica's niece. We want her as a hostage for our safety."

"Aye!" roared in chorus the buccanniers below.

"It's a provocation having her aboard; providences. Heave to, Captain, and send them to sea, a boat, and assure yourselves that Miss is here. Then let them know that if they attempt to hinder our sailing hence, we'll hang the first and fight for it after. That'll cool Colonel Bishop's heat, maybe."

"And maybe it won't." Blow and mocking came Wolvenstone's voice to answer the other's excited exclamation, and as he spoke he advanced to Blood's side, an unexpected ally. "If ye're coming on pulling Bishop's heartstrings, ye're a blither fool, Ogle than I've always thought you was. We've got to fight, my lads."

"How can we fight, man?" Ogle stormed at him.

"Then louder than before roared a gun away to leeward."

"They are within range," cried Ogle. "Wait!" Blood bade him, interrupting, and he had a restraining hand upon the gunner's arm. "There is the safe and easy way. Put the helms down," he bade Phil. "Heave her to, and signa'mo them to send a boat."

A silence of astonishment fell upon the ship; of astonishment and suspicion at this sudden yielding. Captain Blood turned and beckoned Lord Julian forward. Briefly and clearly he announced to all the object of Lord Julian's voyage to the Caribbean, and he informed them of the offer which yesterday Lord Julian had made to him.

"That offer I rejected. But now, outalled, and likely to be outought, as Ogle has said, I am ready to take the word of Morgan; to accept the King's commission and shelter us all behind it."

"The main body of them welcomed the announcement as only men who have been preparing to die can welcome a new lease of life."

"No man need follow me into the King's service who is reluctant," Blood went on. "That is not in the bargain. What is in the bargain is this: I accept this service with such of you as may choose to follow me. And even those of you who do not choose to follow me shall share the immunity of all, and shall afterwards be free to depart. Those are the terms upon which I will myself to the King. Let Lord Julian, the representative of the Secretary of State, say whether he agrees to them."

Prompt, eager and clear came his lordship's agreement. Meanwhile the boatmen signalled to the Jamaica ships to send a boat, and the men in the waist boat their ranks and went noisily flocking to line the bulwarks and view the great stately vessels that were racing down toward them. As Ogle left the quarter-deck, Blood turned, and came face to face with Miss Bishop. She set a hand lightly upon his arm.

"You have chosen wisely, sir," she commended him, "however much against your inclinations."

"I owed it to you—or thought I did," he said.

"Your resolve delivered me from a horrible danger," she admitted. "But I do not understand why you should have hesitated when first it was proposed to you. It is an honorable service."

"King James?" he sneered.

"England," she corrected him in reproof. "The country is all, sir; the sovereign naught. King James will pass; others will come and pass; England remains to be honorably served by her sons, whatever rancour they may hold against the man who rules her in their time."

"Shrewd advocacy," he approved it. "You should have spoken to the crew. Do you suppose now that this honorable service might redeem one who was a pirate and a thief?"

"If he . . . needs redeeming. Perhaps . . . he has been judged too harshly."

"Why . . . if you think that," he said, considering her, an odd hunger in his glance, "life might have its uses, after all, and even the service of King James might become tolerable. If you will go below, and get your gear and your woman, you shall presently be sent aboard one of the ships of the fleet."

been notified of the coming of Lord Julian. Wade. But . . . about this ship.

"If Captain Blood will show you his commission, perhaps that will set all doubts at rest," concluded his Lordship.

Captain Blood thrust a parchment under Calverley's bulging eyes. "I must return to Colonel Bishop for my orders," he informed them. "At that moment a lane was opened in the ranks of the men, and through this came Miss Bishop, followed by her octetuous woman. Over his shoulder Captain Blood observed her approach.

"Perhaps, since Colonel Bishop is with you, you will convey his niece to him. Miss Bishop was aboard the Royal Mary, and I rescued her with his lordship. She will be able to acquaint me with the details of that and of the present state of affairs."

"As for me," said Lord Julian with intent to make Miss Bishop's departure free from all interference on the part of the buccanniers, "I shall remain aboard the Arabella until we reach Port Royal. My compliments to Colonel Bishop. Say that I look forward to making his acquaintance there."

"King James?" he sneered.

Consider Disposal Of Securities Of Germans

More Than $14,000,000 Held In Canada Before War

More than $14,000,000 in cash and victory bonds, representing the proceeds of the property and securities of Germans, taken as a result of the Great War, is now in the hands of Hon. A. R. Copp, secretary of state. This amount is being held by Mr. Copp, in the capacity of custodian, under regulations respecting trading with the enemy, and the treaty of peace which vested the Canadian property of German nationals in the Dominion Government.

In addition an approximate sum of $14,000,000 in value, remains to be obtained by Mr. Copp, as custodian, from various sources.

The final disposition of the proceeds now held has not yet been decided upon, but, under the Treaty of Versailles, Canada is entitled to confiscate Canadian property and securities held by German nationals when war broke out. It is understood from official sources that the decision will eventually rest with parliament.

Developing Aircraft Forces

Will Be Given Chance To Control Future Battles

We are at the beginning of a brisk and expensive development of the aircraft and anti-aircraft forces which will be attached to every squadron in the future. Whether aircraft can control the fortunes of a battle no one can yet say, but their chances of doing so are so good that everyone is concerned, have no chance at all. Every fleet is being equipped with aircraft to scout, to "spot," to fight, to bomb, to protect the bombers, and, in short, to secure "control of the air" before a battle opens. These things mean anti-aircraft guns, increased armor, aircraft carriers, heavy ships to protect the carriers, and the like.—The Manchester Guardian.

The Royalty Of Malta

Oldest Title Dates Back Over Four Hundred Years

Malta has an order of nobility all its own, bearing titles of great antiquity of which its members are justly proud. These titles have been recognized by the British Government since the island became part of the Empire and a noble of Malta takes precedence at the English court next after a Baron of Ireland. The premier title in the island is the Barony of Diar-I-Balei, which dates from 1350, nearly two centuries before Charles V. made over Malta to the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem.

Why are crosses used to represent knighthood? Centuries ago very few people could write, so in signing legal documents they simply made their mark, usually a cross. After doing this the document was made binding by both parties kissing the cross they had made. And so a cross marked on a paper became associated with kisses.

An old "family tree" bed quilt, yellow with age, embroidered with names and dates recording births, marriages and deaths in the family, established in the Wisconsin Courts the claim of a certain family to a $5,000 estate left by its father.

Disappointed To Find He Was An Ex-Premier

Sir Robert Borden Was Sadly Disillusioned In His Own Home Riding Of Halifax

Having represented the city of Halifax in the Commons for many years, Sir Robert Borden, for a time believed he was no stranger to the good people of the eastern gateway to the Dominion. He was sadly undeceived, however, shortly after he laid down the onerous duties of premier, according to the Toronto Star Weekly.

Included among the large number who pressed forward to meet him at an informal reception in Halifax was a middle-aged lady well known for her interest in child welfare.

After the manner of so many other one-idea enthusiasts, that lady imagined everybody else must necessarily be particularly interested in her particular field, and when she got the chance to talk to the guest of honor launched forth into her favorite topic.

Sir Robert was bored, but did his best to simulate a polite interest, though listening with only half an ear. Suddenly he became all attention when he realized the lady was thanking him profusely for what he had done to make the lives of little babies healthier and happier. He was particularly puzzled when he heard himself referred to as "the greatest benefactor of future generations this country has ever known."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier would have carried off such a situation with graceful ease. Hon. Arthur Meighen would have looked wise and maintained a discreet silence. Premier Mackenzie King would have tactfully changed the conversation.

But however great may have been his ability in other lines, Sir Robert Borden never was a nimble-witted politician.

Try as he would, the ex-premier could not recall any child legislation of his that deserved such extravagant praise, and said something to this effect to his fulsome admirer.

"Legislation? Legislation?" said the lady, with a look of extreme surprise. "What has legislation to do with your business?"

"As member of parliament and former premier, I am naturally supposed to have something to do with legislation," explained Sir Robert, his brows knitted in perplexity.

The lady gasped with dismay, then said: "Oh! Are you a member of parliament? I am so disappointed! I thought you were the man who condenses milk for babies!"

Trend Of Education

Parents Not Taking Sufficient Responsibility Says University Professor

The trend of education from parental responsibility to the teacher was deprecated by W. J. Dunlop, head of the University of Toronto extension department, in a recent speech. "Almost everything one can think of it taught in the schools today," he said. "Within 25 years we shall probably have officials whose duty it will be to go to our homes at night and see that children study under proper lighting conditions and get to bed in time. And if this continues it will not be long before parents send their children to be brought up from birth in institutions."

Denver Man Wants Western Canada Land

Looking For Tract Of From 50,000 to 200,000 Acres

A tract of land from 50,000 to 200,000 acres is required by George Olinfer, of Denver, who stipulates that it must be adaptable to the production of wheat, have plenty of water easily accessible, and bear a reasonable quantity of good timber.

He stated in a letter to the Regina board of trade that he understands such tracts of lands exist in the Northwest, and that the government is ready to dispose of them at low prices with reasonable terms. He was referred to the proper quarters.

London Secures Most Meat From Argentina

224,866 Tons Distributed Through Central Market Last Year

Argentina in 1921 again led the world in supplying London with meat. Statistics just issued show that 224,866 tons of Argentine meat were distributed through the central market at Smithfield, as compared with 104,843 from the British Isles; 50,572 from Australia and New Zealand; 8,861 from Canada and the United States; and 50,887 from other countries. The report shows that London's meat bill for the year was £28,500,000.

New York's School De Luxe

Canadian Teacher Will Be Principal Of $5,000,000 Building

Hector Clarleworth, writing in Toronto Saturday Night on what he saw in New York, says: The scale of municipal spending is enormous. One day I went into the wilds of Harlem to see what is regarded as the "last word" in public schools of the last year, just on the point of completion. Now Harlem today in appearance is a greatly enlarged edition of what the Bowery was 30 years ago, but this school edition on the bank of the East River, overlooking Hell Gate, is a marvel. It has 2,000 pupils, all of tender years, with room for nearly a thousand more; restaurants, rest rooms, several vast gymnasiums, an eye and ear hospital, a dental clinic, hundreds of shower baths, everything that the most fully equipped modern athletic club could boast, and most countless other things besides. It is intended to be the principal school selected for this public school de luxe is a Canadian lady, Miss Claire Flecker, who served her apprenticeship under James L. Hughes in Toronto. The cost will reach $5,000,000.

It is interesting to note that in all the vast array of dark-eyed little ones there was hardly one of English-speaking parents; or whose parents were born in America. That is what is being done for the proletariat of Europe in New York, but whether the proletariat is grateful it is hard to discover.

NEW HEALTH-FOR SUFFERING WOMEN

Aching Backs and Tired Limbs Need Not Be Endured

Too many women suffer from aching backs and tired limbs. Aching back, tired limbs, attacks of neuralgia, rheumatism, aches need not be a part of woman's life. Such trials indicate plainly that the blood is thin and watery and that the sufferer needs the help of a real tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Suffering women who have tried all the medicine agencies will find the highest praise among those who have been thus helped is from Mrs. J. H. Williams, who writes: "Following the birth of a still-born child a few years ago, I had a very serious illness. I was so weak for months that I could not walk across the room without a feeling of faintness. I had scarcely strength enough to stand up, and when dressing would have to sit down two or three times. My face and lips were colorless. My face had no appetite, and life did not seem worth living. A friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got six boxes. Before they were all gone I felt improved. My appetite was returning, and my strength was coming back. I continued taking the pills and fully realized my former good health. I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a blessing to weak women, and hope my experience will induce some other sufferer to try them."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50¢ a box direct from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PAINS IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Other Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Lachine, Quebec.—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound in a paper, and I was told that it would help me. I took four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel now as if I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash. I recommend the medicine to all my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial." Mrs. M. W. Ross, 680 Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said an Operation Proved, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a healthy baby girl four months old. I do not know how to thank you for the book. I will work and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."

CHARACTER TELLS THE STORY!

People throughout this country are giving more thought to hygiene and to the purity of remedies on the market, but no one doubts the purity of Doctor Pierce's vegetable medicine, for they have been so favorably known for over fifty years that everyone knows they are just what they are claimed to be. These medicines are the result of long research by a well-known physician, Dr. V. Pierce, M. D., who compounded them from health-giving herbs and roots long used in sickness by the Indians. Dr. Pierce's reputation as a leading and honored citizen of Buffalo, is a sufficient guarantee for the purity of that splendid tonic and blood purifier, the Golden Medical Discovery, and the equally fine nerve tonic and system builder for women's ailments, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Terminates Noteworthy Flight

British Plane Completes 17,000-Mile Trip to India and Back

After a most eventful journey of 17,000 miles to India and back, Sir Sifton Brancker and Alan Coghlan, his pilot, arrived at Croydon, Eng. As the machine came to rest and Sir Sifton Brancker's head appeared out of the cabin, a roasting cheer was raised both for the air vice-marshal and the pilot, whose enterprise and skill has brought to a successful termination a noteworthy flight in the development of British aviation. Sir Sifton Brancker, in response to a general fire of questions, remarked that it had been "a nice little joy ride," and that, personally, he had not found the long spells in the cabin at all boring. It has been an intensely interesting trip," he added, "and has resulted in a number of valuable conclusions, which will be presented in due course in the form of a report to the air council."

Considering the varying conditions under which the machine has been down since last November, when the flight to India was commenced, the machine is in remarkably good trim. If it showed no signs of the hard wear and tear it must have been subjected to. Actually, since it was built in July, 1923, this particular aeroplane has flown 50,000 miles, the equivalent of twice round the world.

Canada's First Public Garden

Was Established in Halifax, N.S., in 1763

The first effort to cultivate the soil of Canada was made by the discoverer, Jacques Cartier, who, in 1541, had an acre of land cleared near where Quebec now stands, and had it planted with turnips, cabbage and lettuce seeds. The first public garden was Adam's Garden in Halifax, N.S., established in 1763. The present Public Gardens in Halifax are the pride of the city and the admiration of all visitors.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS ALWAYS IN THE HOME

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else and there are thousands of mothers in the home who will always find a box of Baby's Own Tablets on hand. Thousands of mothers have become convinced through the actual use of the Tablets that there is nothing to equal them in banishing constipation and indigestion; breaking up colds and simple fevers; expelling worms and promoting that refreshing sleep so necessary to the welfare of little ones. Among the thousands of mothers who praise Baby's Own Tablets is Mrs. Alex. J. Perry, Atlantic, N.S., who says: "I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house as I know of no other medicine that can equal them for the minor ills that come to young children." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Daily Newspapers Unjustly Charged

Are Not Extravagant of Newspaper as is Generally Believed

The criticism is often made that some of our Canadian daily papers are extravagant of newspaper. If, however, this criticism were directed against a condition that is permitting the destruction of so much of our forest by fire, it might be with more justification. Canadian newspapers are not large users of newspaper, the daily papers having a total average daily circulation of but 1,647,240 copies. To provide the newspaper for a 16-page paper covering this circulation requires 206 tons daily. Spruce is chiefly used and of this species we have burned 470 million cubic feet, or sufficient to provide newspaper for a sixteen-page paper 313 days in the year for 70 years. For saw timber and pulpwood we have used 558 million cubic feet of spruce. In view of this comparison, the charge of extravagance against daily newspapers can hardly be established. This charge, however, might be quite logically made against Canadians in general who are responsible for such great forest fire losses.

Heads Royal Academy

156-Year-Old Ceremony Recently Witnessed in London

With traditional 156-year-old ceremony, Frank Dicksee was recently elected president of the British Royal Academy, the eleventh holder of the office first held by Sir Joshua Reynolds in 1768.

The retiring president, Sir Aston Webb, having reached the age limit of 75, addressed the students, then retired to the assembly room and discarded the insignia of office, while the Royal Academicians voted for the new president.

Frank Dicksee is a relative of Thomas Francis Dicksee, who illustrated Shakespeare and Sir Walter Scott. He was born in London 71 years ago, was made A.R.A. in 1881 and R.A. in 1891. Among his well-known paintings are "Funeral of a Viking," "The Redemption of Tannhauser," "Romeo and Juliet," "The Passing of Arthur," and "La Belle Dame Sans Merci."

Paris. Boycott Krasin's Family

Wife and Daughter of Soviet Ambassador Having Lonely Time

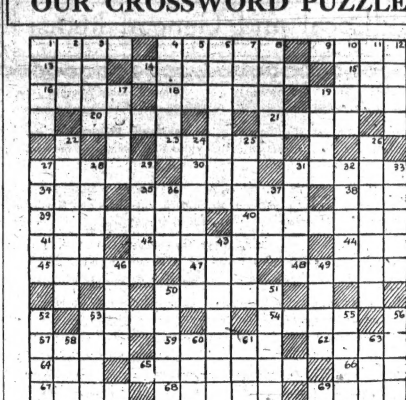

Madame Krasin, wife of the Russian ambassador to France, is having rather a lonely time in Paris. She and her daughter are avoided by the haute monde, although the French Government has given official recognition to the representative of the Soviet power. Many former Russian agents have found refuge in Paris and they have barred the entrance to society wherever possible, which means that the two women are practically ignored. While they might be able to avoid unpleasant contacts by staying away from the few places to which they are welcomed, Madame and Mademoiselle Krasin meet what is practically insult in the Paris shops, where many Russians are employed. Both women are well known and have threatened to walk out if compelled to serve the wife and daughter of the Soviet ambassador.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 10

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

TREASURER

Golden Text—The opening of thy words giveth light. Psalm 119:130.

Lesson—Acts 8:26-39.

Devotional Reading—Isaiah 52:7-12.

The Text Explained and Illuminated

Wireless in the Spiritual Realm, verses 26-39. To Philip who Stephen, one of the seven deacons appointed to relieve the apostles in their work, came the commission to go southward toward Gaza. Our text says that "an angel of the Lord" gave him this commission, but this does not tell us who was the messenger thus chosen. "A vision, a dream, a human agent, some natural circumstance or instrument, all these are in Holy Scripture or in contemporary literature, styled God's angels or messengers. Men saw them more deeply than we do, recognized the hand of a Superintending Providence where we behold only secondary agents, and in their blind confidence spoke of angels where we should only recognize some natural power."

The whole topic of angelic agencies has been much confused for us by the popular notions about angels. When men speak or think of angels, they imagine them as winged creatures, they are depicted in sacred pictures. The conception of young men clad in white, and shining garments with beautiful wings dependent from their shoulders and folded by their sides, is an idea of the angels and angelic life derived from medieval painters and sculptors, not from Holy Writ. The important point, however, for us to remember is that Philip here moved under external direction to the conversion of the Ethiopian (G. T. Stokes).

Seeking To Escape Allies Restrictions

Zeppelin Company Wants to Move Factories into Switzerland

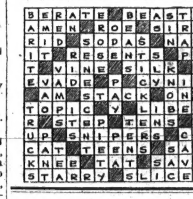

The Zeppelin Company is seeking to escape the allies' restrictions on the construction of gas bags by removing its plant from Germany to Switzerland, according to a dispatch from Geneva. The company is reported to have requested the Swiss Government's permission to move the entire works from Friedrichshafen across Lake Constance to the Swiss shore. Zeppelin officials seem confident that permission will be granted.

An Oil that is Priced Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put out to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and priced throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.
